Tamilnadu, India.

Update from Jan – March 2012

Bandhua mukti morcha's Sugam Vedashram Project is continue to encourage and emphasize on the importance of education at village Chanderpadi. Our presence there in the village is helping these children to be remain motivated to continue their studies, aim for better ranks in the school, graduate and move up to higher studies and dream for a good job and great life.

As always this year also we have conducted republic day celebration, organized various indoor and outdoor games to bring out their talents and rewarded them on that function.

In the month of March our project observed international women's day for which Mrs. Alamelu , Regional HR Manager of HOPE foundation was invited to be the main guest to address the students.

To engage them in this year summer holidays we have schedule various events and training programs, to conduct some of the exercise an external trainer will be invited.

Mathematics has been a tough subject for me. I always get scolding, punishments; find it too difficult to understand during Math's class. To improve and get help to do well in the subject took help from teachers at Sugam's after school project. Last three years steadily improved and my highest mark is 90 out of 100. Learning from Sugam helping me to continue my studies, I getting ready for next year board exam and I am confident that I will do well. I am remain thankful to Bandhua Mukti Morcha for having the tuition centre here at our village.

I am happy that i can read and write though my parents can't. Few years ago i thought i may be forced to discontinue my studies and look after the household needs but luckily reached Sugam with the help of my friends who were already students there. I was inspired, personally motivated, given special attention by teachers to show deep interest in studies, as result of this i continue to be a good student in the school, quick to complete my home work and also able to help my parents with my reading ability. Many thanks to all who are helping me to study well.
