

Police Arrests People at Solidarity Vigil in Delhi Against Terror Attack in Peshawar School

India Gate, 17th Dec,2014 (600 PM) : a call given by Delhi Solidarity Group and Nagrik Ekta Manch, AISA and others for candle light vigil at India Gate in memory of those dead at Peshawar siege was not tolerated by Delhi Police. Delhi police disrupted the whole programme and then used mild force on men and women. There were no women police officials but men not only misbehaved but also snatched away the candle. Once Swami Agnivesh joined the March they allowed us to move out of the radial on the main road, but there they cordoned off the whole area and then forcefully arrested Swami Agnivesh, Prof Apoorvanand, JNU president Ashutosh Kumar, Delhi Solidarity Group Convener Sanjeev Kumar, Women's activist Purnima Gupta, farmers leader and NAPM convener Bhupender Singh Rawat and 15 others.
