Shri Pranab Mukherjee
President of India
Rashtrapati Bhavan, New Delhi, 110 004

Respected Prandela,

It was painful for me to know through various media channels and newspapers that you will be attending the 'Ayutha Chandi Maha Yagyam' which is being organized by Telengana Chief Minister Shri K.C. Rao. The motive of this Yagnam is to use some kind of 'Rajya Vashikaran' - some kind of occult science - to manipulate the minds of people to gain 'Varchasv' or absolute control. This is patronizing of blind faithism, obscurantism and miracle mongering and thus a direct violation of the article 51 (A) of the Indian constitution.

The cost involved in the Yagnam is humungous and a complete waste. The Chief Minister and more than him you- Your Excellency are duty bound to promote rationality and scientific temper and thus not only reject but also stamp out such occult practices. Even the Prime Minister Narendra Modi had forcefully exhorted in his first Parliamentary address as PM that the only way to rid the nation of its poverty was to fight blind faithism through education. I had congratulated him for those historic words but what was painful was that they merely remained words and no concrete action against blind faith industry was initiated.

I humbly ask you to comply by your duties and responsibilities as the President of this great nation by not only declining the invitation of Shri K.C. Rao but also condemning his ritualistic and occult Yagnam.

Thanking You ,

Yours Sincerely,

Swami Agnivesh
